BACKGROUND DISCUSSION:

In view of the anticipated increase in construction activity as a result of the Jordan Valley TOD and Station at Gardner Mill, staff is recommending the hiring of an additional building inspector. The inspector will need to possess the skills of a level 3 inspector.

On July 22, 2015, the City Council orally approved the filling of this position. This action formalizes that approval.

THE CITY OF WEST JORDAN, UTAH
A Municipal Corporation

RESOLUTION NO. 15-147

A RESOLUTION approving and authorizing the immediate hiring of a new Building Inspector 3 position in the Community and Economic Development Department.

Whereas, the City Council orally gave assent to the immediate hiring of a new Building Inspector 3 within the Community and Economic Development Department; and

Whereas, there is no need for a budget amendment given the already budgeted position of Development Director is vacant, and funds allocated to the Development Director position will more than cover the new Building Inspector 3,

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS RESOLVED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF WEST JORDAN, UTAH:

Section 1. The City Council hereby ratifies and approves the immediate hiring of a new Building Inspector 3 position in the Community and Economic Development Department.

Section 2. The Director of the Community and Economic Development Department is instructed and empowered to start the process for the hiring process approved in Section 1.

Section 3. This resolution shall take effect immediately.

Adopted by the City Council of the City of West Jordan, Utah this 12th day of August, 2015.
